BUILDING PARISH COMMUNITY

Stewardship Reflections from our Parish Mission

God is always with us. Jesus assures us that when we take up our crosses and follow Him, He is with us. He is with us always, until the end of time; in times of great joy and in times of struggle. We are called to gratitude for His presence in our lives, called to be grateful for all that God gives us. Our response is our service. We are called to change the world/situations/circumstances with our giftedness...daily...in small ways – always. It is important to reflect and identify the gifts God has given us and then look for ways to serve Him and others by truly making use of these gifts.

~ submitted by the Stewardship Committee

Gatekeepers are needed!

Duties to include opening and/or closing the church prior to Mass Saturday evening and/or Sunday morning. See Father Louis if you can serve in this capacity.

Ash Wednesday is coming!

(February 14th)

"Turn away from sin and be faithful to the Gospel."

Lent is a time of repentance, change of heart and prayer.

The weekdays of Lent are a time of penance for the Church around the world.

Feast of the Holy Child of Jesus Celebration

Thank you to all who helped in one way or another to make the "Filipino Lunch Buffet for a Cause" a great success. Proceeds were donated to St. Gerard Church and presented last Sunday, January 28th to Parish Council. God bless.

Bringing Home the Word **+

You are Not Alone

By Mary Katharine Deeley

Illness, depression, and misfortune can make us feel alone and afraid. We wonder whether anyone can understand what we're going through or help us.

The first five chapters of Mark's Gospel give us several healing stories in which Jesus, by touch or word, restores individuals to wholeness. He casts out demons. He cures the sick, like Simon's mother-in-law. The stories confirm what our faith tells us – that God's healing power is for all people and that good news lifts us and gives us joy.

But for those touched by the loneliness of infirmity of mind, body, or spirit, the stories alone might not be enough. Instead, the fervent prayer of the psalmist might be our grace: "The LORD... [heals] the broken-hearted" (Psalm 147:2-3). Or, our peace might rest in the simple knowledge of two often-overlooked lines from the Gospels: "They brought him many who were possessed by demons" (Matthew 8:16), and, "The whole town was gathered at the door" (Mark 1:33).

Simply put, everyone came, and no one was alone. No matter what our condition, we are not alone. Christ is there in our pain and suffering to give us the grace to endure. We're not always cured by human standards, but Christ helps us find wholeness no matter what we suffer – and in him we find our peace and our joy.

Isaiah told us that the name given to the Messiah was Emmanuel, which means "God with us."

In Christ, we see the evidence that God's promise has come true.

World Day of Prayer Bible Studies

"All God's creation is very good!" (Genesis 1:31).

The World Day of Prayer is a worldwide movement of Christian women of many traditions who come together to observe a common day of prayer each year. This year, the people of Suriname, South America, want to raise awareness about climate change and caring for the environment.

As a prelude to the World Day of Prayer there will be two bible studies focusing on our role as Christians in the world of God. Wednesday, February 7 and February 21 at 7:00pm, St. Andrew's United Church Upper Hall. Please use the street level entrance on Smith Street. There is an elevator for those who have difficulty with stairs. You are encouraged to bring your bible with you. All are welcome.

YOUTH REFLECTION

"Getting Well"

This Week...

Job, Paul, and Jesus all speak of their daily work experiences and what they are called to do. Job is unhappy because of all his suffering, and he sees his days as drudgery. Paul is almost a workaholic, focused on doing whatever it takes to spread the Gospel. Jesus cures the fever of Simon's mother-in-law, and her immediate response is to get up and serve them. Jesus escapes all the crowds early the next morning by finding a lonely place to pray, and from there he urges his followers to press on with him to other villages and continue their work.

For Your Reflection

In this Gospel story, Jesus sees his work as involving three areas: curing, teaching, and praying.

- Not only did Jesus cure the fever of Simon's mother-in-law but he cured many other ill people who came looking for him at her door. Obviously we can't cure sicknesses as Jesus did, but we can be a healing presence for someone going through a difficult time or a personal struggle. When and how have you done that for someone?

- Jesus wanted to travel to other villages to preach and teach. Are you a good student? Are you willing to listen and learn? Do you want to become more educated? How so? Obviously you can't be a certified teacher yet, but you can teach others by the example of your life. What can others learn from you by watching the way you live?

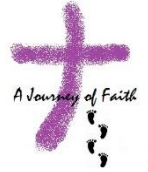

- Jesus escaped the crowds to pray. Do you ever need quiet time, away from noise and activity, so that you can make sense of the world? If so, how does that time help you? If not, how might that kind of time help you?

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA) is an incredible journey of discovery, the discovery of God's love in Jesus. If you or someone you know is interested in exploring the friendship and saving grace of Jesus Christ, we invite you to join us in the RCIA journey. It is a warm, welcoming experience that introduces the Christian faith in our Roman Catholic tradition. We explore topics such as Holy Scripture, the Sacraments, Church history and the core beliefs of the Church. Anyone who has taken this "leap of faith" has found it to be a life-altering experience.

The RCIA process is intended for those who are non-baptized. There are several rites and stages that are part of the process to prepare adults for Baptism and to receive the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil.

Rite of Reception of Baptized Christians into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church. If you have been baptized in another Christian tradition, the Catholic Church respects that baptism. Baptism is the sacrament of our rebirth in Christ and our immersion into His saving death and Resurrection. It can never be repeated. Reception into the Full Communion of the Catholic Church happens after a period of preparation through catechesis, prayer and worship, and an introduction to Catholic life, values, and mission.

Adults who have been baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received the Sacrament of Confirmation can prepare for reception of this sacrament through a period of catechesis and prayer.

If you are interested in this journey of faith please contact Fr. Louis at 306.782.2449 or 306.782.0323.

And to all our friends in St. Gerard's parish, we remind you that we all have a responsibility to share our faith and bring others to Christ. If you know of a family member, friend, co-worker or fellow student who is searching for a deeper meaning in their life, let them know about RCIA.

OFFERING A MASS

The offering of a Mass in the name of a deceased family member or friend is one of the greatest ways to keep our beloved dead in our living memory. At each celebration of the Mass, the great prayer of sacrifice is made complete as Jesus' life, death and resurrection is offered to God the Father. When we offer a Mass for a particular person, we ask that in a special way the individual be remembered by the priest who offers up the great sacrifice on behalf of the whole community of faith. In a very real and active way, the life, death and resurrection of the person remembered becomes present and is offered up with Jesus. Each time we offer up a Mass for someone, living or dead, we celebrate the greatest gift of our faith – the gift of Everlasting Life in Christ.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is available daily at the EADM Centre Chapel at 484 Hamilton St. Regina. Hours: 10:00 am to 8:00 pm on Monday through Thursday. Friday, Saturday & Sunday: 2:00 to 5:00 pm. Please help us keep Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament available in our city on a daily basis.
